WELCOME TO COPPELL, TEXAS

In 1980, Coppell was just a quiet little town of 3,826. Now, at more than 40,000 residents and growing, it's continues to be a desirable place to live while also maintaining its small- town identity. Coppell is bordered by and offers easy access to I-635, I-35 and Highway 121. To the southeast is Las Colinas and one of the fastest suburban commuter routes to down- town Dallas. To the south is Valley Ranch with the Dallas Cowboys' and Dallas Stars' training facilities. The many parks, nearby lakes, quiet tree- lined streets and friendly attitude among the residents are just a few of the reasons for Coppell's continuing development. Residents here find these North Texas woods with luxury homes, manicured yards, and rows of trees a good place to raise a family.
